Recognition of a State university

370. SHRI VIJAY J. DARDA: Will the. Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

whether Government is aware that during November, 2007, Delhi High Court has ruled that recognition of the University Grants Commission is not a pre-condition for a State Government to set up a university;

if so, whether such a situation would not result in indiscriminate setting up of universities without simultaneously conforming to the laid-down standards of infrastructure, curriculum, eligibility criteria, faculty's academic profile, etc. thereby compromising the quality of education; and the steps taken for maintaining the quality of instructions?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMTI D. PURANDESWARI):

Yes, the Hon'ble Delhi High Court vide its judgement dated 2nd July, 2007 (WP No. 18188 of 2006) has held that there is no provision either in the University Grants Commission (UGC) Act or in the Regulation, which require a recognition/approval of the UGC before a University is regarded as one under Section 2 (f) of the UGC Act.

As per provision of the UGC Act, 1956, a "University" means a university established or incorporated under a Central Act, a Provincial Act or a State Act. Further, the Central Government may, on the advice of the Commission, declare by notification in the offical Gazette, mat any institutions for higher education, other man a university shall be deemed to be a university for the purpose of the UGC Act.

The UGC has issued Regulation on minimum standard of instructions for the grant of First/Master Degree, 2003.
